

Funding options for PhD completion

FUNDING		INFORMATION & CONTACT
DAAD STIBET-Programme	The programme aims at international doctoral and postdoctoral researchers in Germany. The requirements for funding are a good performance and an expected completion within a year. The scholarship is granted for maximum six months; an extension to up to 12 months total is possible in exceptional cases.	Leipzig University – International Centre Goethestraße 6, 04103 Leipzig Phone: +49 341 97 32080 Email: international@uni-leipzig.de >>> Web Martin Luther University – International Office Universitätsring 19/20, 06108 Halle Phone: +49 345 55 21589 Email: info@international.uni-halle.de >>> Web Friedrich Schiller University Jena Angela Köhler-Saß Phone: + 49 (0) 3641 930409 Email: graduierstipendien@uni-jena.de >>> Web
FSU – Grants for completing a doctorate	Sometimes, financing runs out just before you are ready to complete your doctorate. In order to bridge the resulting financial gap, Friedrich Schiller University Jena and some foundations offer short-term grants so that candidates can complete their doctorate.	Friedrich Schiller University Jena Angela Köhler-Saß Phone: + 49 (0) 3641 930409 Email: graduierstipendien@uni-jena.de >>> Web
MLU – Teaching and Research Assistantships	The MLU awards Teaching (TA) and Research Assistantships (RA) to matriculated foreign PhD students of the University. PhD supervisors can apply for an assistantship for up to 3 months and for a sum of approx. 300 € net per month to be paid to graduate assistants under a contract.	Martin Luther University – International Office / PhD Network Esther Smykalla Phone: +49 345 55 21538 Email: esther.smykalla@international.uni-halle.de >>> Web

UL – Re-Entry Scholarships for Completing Doctorates	Leipzig University awards re-entry scholarships to researchers who wish to complete their doctorate after suspending their academic activities for family reasons.	Leipzig University - Academic Affairs Verena Jochmann Phone: +49 341 97-32009 Email: stipendien@uni-leipzig.de >>> Web
